

Ammon E. White

July 2, 2020

Ammon E. White, 75, of Lancaster died July 2, 2020 at Lancaster General Hospital. Born in Lancaster, he was the son of Ammon W. White, Sr. and Martha Musser White and the loving husband for more than 30 years to Ruth A. White.

Ammon was certainly a jack of all trades in his jobs as he was good at working on cars, professional painting, and dishwashing. He could do absolutely anything, but he enjoyed helping people out. He was an avid outdoorsman enjoying hunting deer and fishing. He was known for making his famous homemade pizzas and had his quiet time watching TV such as the news, Days of our Lives and Christian programming.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his two sons, Eli (Shelby) and Daniel (Alice) Lutz of Lancaster. His grandchildren, Sunny, Kaylee, Heaven, Nathaniel, Damitrias, and Hunter all brought a smile to his face.

Additionally, his sister Phyllis Miller (Leroy) lives in Denver, PA, his sister-in-law, Peggy Reber (Dave) and Dorothy White, brother-in-law, Albert Shaeffer, his niece, Christine Harting (Clark) of Ephrata. Ammon had many grand nieces and nephews: Elizabeth Clark (Mike), Jeremy Harting, Michele Eckroth (Chad), Chad Miller (Casey), Loretta, Betty, Diane, and Patricia. Ammon was preceded in death by his grandchild Sunny, brother Carl N. White (husband to Dorothy), brother-in-law, Lloyd Keller, sister-in-law, Dorothy Junttonen and nephew, Bruce L. Miller.

A Graveside Service will be held on Wednesday, July 8, 2020 at Millersville Mennonite Cemetery.

Memorial contributions in Ammon's honor may be made to a charity of your choosing.
