Robert J. Gregg

August 28, 2020

Robert J. Gregg, 91, of Willow Street, PA, went to reunite with the love of his life, Delores, on Friday, August 28, 2020. He passed away at Hospice & Community Care with his children, grandchildren and his dear friend, Denise, by his side.

Robert was born and raised in Cabbage Hill, which he was proud of, to the late Charles Gregg and Mary Bloom Gregg. He was a veteran of WW2 and the Korean War, which he was humble about. Robert retired from Lancaster County Emergency Management as an Emergency/Disaster Coordinator, a job he enjoyed. He made friends with many of the Dispatchers there. Robert was a Life Member of West Willow Fire Company serving as Fire Police, and also a Life Member of the Pequea Valley Sportsmen's Association.

He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, making them laugh with his little jokes and stories, often talking in his best Irish voice.

Robert is survived by three children, Robert C. Gregg (Eileen) of Westport, MA, Michael Gregg of Willow Street, PA, Sherry Henrich (Don) of Conestoga, PA, and four grandchildren: Lori, Alicia, Adam, and Matthew, nine great-grandchildren: Victoria, Selena, Derek, Dylan, Karlee, Autumn, Ryan, Levi, and Payton, two step-grandchildren, Megan and Kevin, and his step-great-grandson, Orion.

In addition to his parents, Robert is preceded in death by his beloved wife, Delores, who passed away in 1996.

A graveside service will be held on Wednesday, September 2, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. at Greenwood Cemetery, 719 Highland Avenue, Lancaster, PA. Please dress casually. There will be no gathering after the service.

Bob was my favorite Irishman. He was a friend to me and my husband and we had many laughs at the Diner. Will miss him and Sparky. Jackie

Mr.Gregg to me was the best neighbors ever. He would come over to my strawberry patch on a regular basis and tell me he would eat them all. Everytime he would send me a chat on Facebook even 40 years later, he would call me strawberry girl. Will miss that, much love to his family. Tracie Slater Brady.
