“ On behalf of the Lozano Family we send our deepest condolences to all the Cruz Family, and we pray for each one of you Peace and Strength throughout this difficult time. Wela as like all would call her that is with her Lord and Savior resting in Peace and watching over us. She may not be with us physically but she will always be in our hearts and memories. I too have very sweet memories with Wela; Everytime I would visit with her and her late Husband Victor Sr. She would always check out my jewelry collection of my rings that I wore and she would tell me which one she wanted lol...So I in return gifted a ring all for her and she loved it. But most importantly above all us Im Blessed to because she Loved everyone like family. We Love You Wela!

“ I would like to extend my condolences and prayers to the Cruz Family, I would like to Express , how much I loved "Wela".. She gave of herself, she was forgiving, she was Non judgmental and Loved Us All, amongst Other qualities, She was Humble, Happy, and Fun.. she used to say to me, " Marilyn tu eres la unica que sabe el size de mi braciel".. 😊.. I go down memory lane and I will not forget her, She was one of the Kindest person's I ever met, and she left impressions in every one of our hearts, there are not enough words to truly describe An Angel.. she was one on Earth,
Now She is going home.. Heaven,.. where she will continue to watch us from above, I can see her beautiful smile, making jokes
With her husband... Tito.. , to end , I pray
That first her,children, then to her host of Grandchildren and all the lives who are feeling sadness and Sorrow, that God Give You Strength to go through the loss of a Very Special lady... We should all try to be like her... Wela .. My only mother in law,my family my Friend.. Love You.. 😊
