

Marjorie Ellen Reim Sieghardt

June 14, 2020

Marjorie Ellen Reim Sieghardt, of Lancaster, Pa., formerly of Glen Rock, NJ, died early Sunday, June 14, 2020. She was 87.

Strong, intelligent, caring and fiercely devoted to her family, Marjorie was born in Bronx, NY, the daughter of William Edward Reim and Ellen Maria Johnson Reim. She loved the theatre, music, great restaurants and good sales.

Marjorie graduated from Walton High School in the Bronx and went to work for This Week magazine. In the early 1950s, she also worked for the Magazine Advertising Bureau, John Wood Company and the Borden Company in administrative roles.

At the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company and ABC television, as the assistant to Voice of Firestone Orchestra conductor Howard Barlow, she produced the weekly program "Voice of Firestone Theatre."

She left the New York City area to live near Milwaukee for a short time. While there, she volunteered for the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra.

In the mid-1960s, Marjorie moved to Glen Rock, NJ, where she was a fixture in the town, using her organizational skills and straightforward manner to benefit the community. In addition to posts with the arts organization TIC TOC (To Introduce Culture To Our Children) and the Glen Rock Community School, Marjorie served on the town's Youth Guidance Committee, helping youth who committed first-time offenses. She later was the first employee of Murphy Capital Management, then of Ridgewood, NJ, now of Gladstone, NJ, and was instrumental in growing the firm to its current size.

Marjorie retired to Lancaster in the early 2000s, and attended St. Edward's Episcopal Church, where she used her talents while serving on the vestry and the finance committee.

Over the years, she was a devoted and loving pet parent to Jake, SweePea, Sam and Penny.

Marjorie is survived by her daughters, Elizabeth Lund of Lancaster, and Kathryn (Kate) Achelpohl of Springfield, Va.; grandson Wyatt Edward Achelpohl, and Elizabeth's husband, Andrew Mark Horner. She was preceded in death by her parents, her brother, David William Reim, and sister-in-law, Erika Loretta Haring Reim.

Her Graveside Service took place at Conestoga Memorial Park in Lancaster on Tuesday, June 16. The family will hold a Celebration of Life Service in the late summer.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Marjorie's name to St. Edward's Episcopal Church, 2453 Harrisburg Pike, Lancaster, PA 17601.

Comments

“ On Sunday, we lost a very special lady....Marge was the second employee of Murphy Capital Management and a remarkable woman. Marge rose up from humble beginnings and shook off many challenges and stereo-types to become a real force and a huge contributor to Murphy Capital Management (a firm she worked at for multiple decades). MCM is in the financial services industry - which at that time was dominated mostly by men and Marge held her own to say the least. Marge worked up until a handful of years ago, after we persuaded her to come out of retirement, which she willingly did in her 80's. It was a full-life and Marge accomplished a lot on many fronts and her character, warmth, business acumen and sage motherly advice will be missed.

May you rest in eternal peace my dear friend.

Peter J. Lewis
President
Murphy Capital Management

Peter - June 16, 2020 at 10:25 AM