“ Mary Lou was one the most gracious and considerate people that I have ever crossed paths with, as was Ben.
Condolences to Mark and Matt. You were lucky to have had such great parents.

“ About two weeks ago when we were out for a walk, my mom and I were talking about your mom, Mary Lou. What a special lady who helped to create so many happy memories! They include Tony the donkey, Trixie the dog, the trick or treat nights and the candy apples she gave out, the ginger bread men at Christmas, sledding down the hill in front of the house and the hand crafted pottery. I remember one piece of pottery in particular that said "We grow old too soon and smart too late." Oh how true. And then there was her green thumb!
The photo you chose for her obituary captures her true personality; warm, welcoming and always a pleasant smile. May she be at peace. I speak for myself, and for my mom, offering sincere condolences and sympathy. She will be missed.

“ We always looked forward to going to see Mary Lou and Ben. Much laughter and warm, generous hospitality were guaranteed. Mary Lou was so creative - her photography, her garden, her cooking! Your gentle soul will be missed, Lou. Say hello to mom and dad for us - and, of course, dear Ben. Love, Kathy, Sheila and Christine Dulaney
