“ I have just recently learned of Paula's passing. I don't know if you will read this, Mark, but I know how much you loved her. Paula was one of my closest friends in college and for years afterward until I moved to Boston for grad school. She was the God mother to my daughter, Caitlin, who will, to my amazement soon turn 32. So often through the years Caitlin would make a joke that would remind me of Paula's sense of humor. We had many, many adventures; too numerous to write about here. Many of my best memories took place around her kitchen table, including one special New Year's Eve with her friend Rose, my future husband, and our best man. We laughed the entire evening, fueled by the laughter led by Paula. Her parents, Dot and Charlie were amazing, too and David was the "picked upon" younger brother who teased Paula mercilessly. But she loved him, like she loved her family, friends, and especially Mark. I can still remember the day she called to tell me that she had met him and she was so happy and had hopes that their relationship would work out. I loved Paula, and though we sadly hadn't seen one another in too long, she was always in my heart and will remain there forever.

Love always,
Ann Castle

“ Dear Mark and family,
Paula was one of the very first heart sisters I met at the WomenHeart Mayo Clinic- Science and Leadership training in Oct 2010. After thinking I made a "fool" of myself during our class introduction to "why" we were there (I pretty much bared all)- Paula came right up to me afterwards and said "I so know what you mean-sister, we WILL TALK before this training is over!" And, we did! And, yes, we talked about "everything!" I so needed that support after facing hearat disease alone for 2 years. She encouraged me to start a support group-and it's been running for 14 months! And, oh, how contagious her smile was! She made me cry and laugh all at once. She will always be a blessing to me. I am so sorry for your loss. I will think of her every time I listen to Bruce Springsteen, our mutual heart-throb.
Cheers to Paula!

“ Mark, I'm so sorry this is an incredibly difficult thing to have to go through, and entirely too young! Paula was such an incredible woman, with such a giving heart. Please know that I am thinking of you and your family at this difficult time. Let me know if there is anything I can do. - Ann Marie

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathies to Paula's family and friends. I met Paula through WomenHeart, and Paula was truly an angel during my time of need. She was in tune with the feelings and needs of others, often putting theirs before her own. Your work here on earth is done Paula...go rest high upon that mountain. God Bless....
