

A.P. "Tony" Muscarello

September 10, 2010

A. P. "Tony" Muscarello, 86 years, entered into eternal rest on September 8, 2010 at Hospice of Lancaster County, Mount Joy, PA. Born in Baton Rouge, LA on March 31, 1924, he was the beloved son of the late Samuel and Annie (Marino) Muscarello. Tony was a WWII veteran serving with the 132nd Infantry, American Division in Guadalcanal and Southwest Pacific. He lived in Chicago, IL through grade and high school and was an alumnus of Louisiana State University. Founder of Image Publishers, he was a Bible believing and charismatic Catholic. Mr. Muscarello's latest involvements have been "The Newlywed & New Baby Program" as founder of Expressions Plus, a public relations firm in Lancaster.

Tony enjoyed fishing and hunting and always had a story to share. He loved cooking and entertaining friends and prided himself on being a "world famous" cook.

Tony is survived by his children Mark Anthony Muscarello and Cynthia Muscarello; both of California. He is also survived by his sister Margaret Konopka of Cary, IL and by numerous extended family members. He was preceded in death by his brother Phil J. Muscarello, Sr. of Baton Rouge, LA. Tony's family wishes to gratefully acknowledge the care and attention given to Tony during his stay in the Critical Care Unit of Lancaster General Hospital. In addition, they wish to thank the staff of Hospice of Lancaster County who made his journey to Eternal Life as comfortable as possible. Lastly, we acknowledge with love and gratitude the unselfish giving of their all to Mrs.

Tami Wilmot and Mr. Larry Favro and their families. Their generosity and kindness will long be remembered. Thank you all.

Private services will be held with Military Honors and burial at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. Please omit flowers; memorials in Tony's name may be made to Hospice of Lancaster County, 685 Good Drive, P.O. Box 4125, Lancaster, PA 17608-4125.
