“ What an amazing woman Alice was! I think she was 96 when I first met her at St. Peter's and marveled at how much energy she had. We went grocery shopping together Saturday mornings at John Herr's market and whenever I go back there, those fond memories return. My sympathy to Clem and his family.

“ Our family remembers Mrs Stiely with fond memories. she was our neighbor for over 50 years on Virginia Ave. I did her hair when I was hairdresser for 28 yrs. our son Frank (who is now 53) recalls all the times she read to him while she was having her hair done. she had him also St Peter's school. She was a wonder neighbor and friend, we shared our stories of lives of our first grandchildren Sarah my 1st (Anthony).

*She was so proud of her family and loved all of you
