“ My deepest sympathy to Alvins Family. I only found out today 1/15/2013 about Alvins passing. I was so shocked. I'm a cement finisher with Fulginiti Construction that goes back when Al first started here. Some days things didn't always go right on the job. But I can always say that Alvin was one of those drivers that truly put a smile on my face when he pulled up to the job site. We will miss him. RIP my Friend Butch

“ Family with deepest sympathy in the loss of your Husband, Father, Brother, Uncle and best friend. Alvin was all of these and much more. Hard worker is an understatement Of him the Mail Man had nothing on Alvin! freezing rain, snow, sleet, nor cold kept him from working. When ever i wanted to visit him i would always find him hard at work on one of his many jobs, his Family and his work was his passion! so im sure God will keep him busy. Elizabeth, Gracie, Alvina, and Janell. Alvins life is your legacy, his love was his gift... and your memories of him are the comfort you'll keep in your heart for ever. Love you always and you're in our prayers Michael & Lydia Sanchez Swinton La Feria, Texas.
