

Andrew David Dionne

April 13, 2026

Andrew David Dionne, 54, went home to be with the Lord unexpectedly on Monday, April 13, 2026. Born in Montreal, Canada, he was the son of the late David B. Dionne and Andrea (Borge) Dionne and the loving husband to Julie (Hess) Dionne for 30 years.

Growing up in Portland, ME, Andrew graduated from Cheverus H.S. and then attended Southern Vermont College where he received his bachelor's degree in environmental science. Andrew excelled in athletics throughout his time in high school and college, including soccer and track and field. It was in college that he met his best friend and faithful wife, Julie. They were married in Kennebunkport ME, and moved to Lancaster in 1999 to raise their beautiful family.

Andrew was a reserve specialist in the engineering profession and worked in Maine for EER before Yingst Engineers in Hershey and The Falcon Group. Later in his career, he started his own company, Reserve Metrics which afforded him the freedom to spend more time and be present with his family.

Andrew discovered the grace of Jesus at the age of 28 and never wavered in his pursuit to continually grow closer with the Lord. Andrew's desire was that his children and family would have a relationship with Jesus and experience the same grace that he received. He attended LCBC Church in Manheim where his faith was nourished. He was grateful to be a part of the Forever Families (Adoption Group) at LCBC with his wife for many years and as of recently participated in a men's group there.

Andrew cherished spending time with his family, and he was a very present husband, father and grandfather. He loved sharing his passion for physical activity with his family, including playing tennis, soccer and many other recreation sports. Andrew treasured music, the ocean, and a good coffee with his wife.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children: Madeline R. (Alexander) Whitt, Lancaster, Ethan B. Dionne, Landisville, Joel A. (Alexis) Dionne, Mount Joy, Annika N. Dionne, and Sophia E. Dionne both of Landisville, three grandchildren: Walker, Willow and Wylie, his sister, Rachel D. Tsacle (Peter), San Francisco, CA and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Andrew was preceded in death by his cousin, Serjei Cahuantzi.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Andrew's Funeral Service at Community Fellowship Church, (Bethel Dr. Location), on Saturday, April 18, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. with Pastor Bobby Parschauer officiating. The family will receive friends and hold a Viewing on Friday evening, April 17, 2026, from 5:00-7:00 p.m. and again on Saturday from 9:30 am until time of service at the Church. Interment will be held at Witness Park Cemetery in Lititz, PA.

In lieu of flowers, the family encourages donations in Andrew's name be made to St. Joseph's House, 640 Buck Run Road, Coatesville, PA 19320 or <https://www.sjhouse.org/>

“ I recently learned that Andrew passed away and could not believe it. I knew Andrew through his work with The Falcon Group. To his family and friends, please accept my sincerest condolences. Andrew was a gentleman and a wonderful soul. He always had a smile on his face.

Sincerely,
David Dahan

“ Andy was always the best. Always leading in with his big smile and hugs. I never felt out of place while Andy was around. He seemed to not skip a beat even if years were between our last encounter. That's what true family offers and I'll miss him for that. Andy and Julie, you'll forever have my prayers. Julie, I am very grateful to have had such a wonderful experience with Andy. He will be missed and he will be cried for. God blessed my family with such wonderful people. I know I'm not around very much but I'm still just as much part of this as the bloodline pulls. We are a wonderful family. The Hess family, Dionne family, and everyone else suffering for this loss. May God rest his soul.

In the graceful words by you, Maria Hess with the ability to touch the hearts of everyone involved. I pray for my family forever and always, in Gods name. To the Dionne family, words cannot express how sorry I am for your loss. To my beloved brother, I will see you again, when I finish this race. May I run it as beautifully as you did, in Christ 💖

“ We had the privilege of being the backyard neighbors of Andy and his family for a few years when we lived in Landisville. We loved watching Andy play soccer in the backyard and spending time with his family. He was such a great dad.
He was also a wonderful husband to his lovely wife and he had a vibrant faith in Christ.
He will be missed by soo many people.....including the Eldeen family.
May he rest in peace and enjoy being in the presence of his Lord and Savior.
We love your family so much and will pray with fervency for God's peace and comfort as you grieve this incredible loss and navigate life without him. 🥺

“ I had the pleasure and surprise of running into Andrew at work where he stopped in to order some hats for his company several weeks ago. It was so nice catching up with him about your family/kids and their career paths, grandkids, etc. He was so proud talking about all of you!
Cant believe it has been so many years since our boys started soccer together!
My heart goes out to you and your family during this very very difficult time. Wishing you all peace and comfort.

“ I have had the fortune to know Andrew for over 10 years through my friendship with his Son, Joel. I find the words I am searching for, difficult to limit to a short message. How grateful I am to of known him and to watch him unconditionally love his children, grandchildren, friends, and family. Every single time I would be around this family, he made it a point to come shake my hand and make me feel at comfortable and welcomed. I will truly miss the excruciating pain of his firm handshakes. He has left a mark on so many people. I pray this beautiful family is found with peace of the Lord during these difficult, confusing, and grieving times. The Dionne/Hess Family has heavily influenced my pursuit of a relationship with Jesus and how grateful I am. God Bless you Andrew Dionne!

“ Andrew was one of the special people I got to know. His love, caring and pride in his family was so evident. Andrew always had a smile for everyone. He was a great listener. I remember when I saw him a few months ago he was so happy he started his own business. Julie, I am beyond sad when I think Andrew is gone from your life, your children's and grandchildren. You will always be in my thoughts and prayers.

Love.

“ I remember the first time I met him. It was Desiree’s wedding, and my second date with Roman. I sat next to him and Julie, I held a newborn Ethan, so they could share a dance ❤️ I remember feeling so welcomed, and comfortable, in a place where I knew one person! And he was that way with my whole family. Even those that barely spoke English! They all love and mourn his loss. You will be missed Andrew. So very much 💕

“ Andy joined our extended family over 30 years ago as someone new to the state and culture of large, loud families but he fit right in as a steady friendly smile amongst the chaos. He did well to blend in but be memorable at the same time. Fond memories include his joyful attitude, aggressive defensive basketball presence on the court, and pure admiration for Julie. He loved his family so much and his pride in them was so evident. I'm truly going to miss seeing him. Literally one of the nicest guys you'll meet. He really felt like one of my cousins. He was a true gentlemen. It's tough to look from afar and honestly say "it was a life well-lived" for most people but if people can remember me how he will be remembered I did something right.

My heart breaks for Julie and the entire family.

“ I Knew Andrew for about 25 years and Remember meeting him and julie for the first time at a conference in Portland Maine. Once or twice a year we met and discussed everything including family, business and afterwards always said wow, what wonderful guy, he was more that but cannot find in words. Admired his unbelievable leadership skills. He was the best of the best and he will surely be missed.

“ Andrew was a man full of life and impossible to forget. We shared many great adventures sailing and skiing together, and we bonded over our common interests in motorcycles and tennis. Every conversation with him was filled with laughter and joy.

He was so proud of his beloved wife and children, and his love for them shone brightly in everything he said and did. A man of deep, strong faith, he faced life with courage and grace.

I will miss his quick wit and wonderful sense of humor every single day. Thank you, my friend, for the memories and the laughter. You will always hold a special place in my heart.

Until we meet again, Zuri

“ So sorry for your loss and for your children and grandchildren but so happy to know that Christ made a huge difference in his life and changed the direction for your family. May eternal joy be your comfort in this temporary loss. Love your family. Keep shining the light of Christ in this dark ugly world

“ Julie and family. I am so sorry for your loss. It was such a joy to run into your family at the Lancaster Mennonite School track when our kids competed together. Please pass along our condolences to your children. May you experience the peace of Jesus as he walks with you through this challenging time. Terry Yoder

We had the privilege to be backyard neighbors with Andy and his family for a few years and loved watching him engage with his kids in the backyard playing soccer. A tremendous and genuine man with a vibrant faith and he will be missed by soo many.....including the Eldeen family.
May he rest in peace and cherish the joy of being face-to-face with his Savior, His Redeemer, the Author and perfecter of his faith.
Praying for his precious family with fervency.
Love you all. So. Much. 🙏🙏
