“ My deepest condolences to Annette's family and loved ones. I got to be a friend of hers during a very difficult time for both of us. I do know how much she loved her family, she talked about them all the time!! She had a great way about her that helped others to laugh when times looked very bleak. I'll keep you all in my prayers for Our Father in Heaven to grant all of her loved ones comfort, strength, and most of all peace. God Bless you all during this difficult time.

“ I am so sorry that you have lost such a wonderful aunt, sister, daughter, mother, and grandmother. I'm at such a loss. Even though I haven't seen her in a few years Anette and her family were a second family to me when I desperately needed one. I only wish that I could give to you the love and support to take away your pain and loss you're feeling now.

The one thing that does console me is knowing that Annette has been reunited with her one and only true love, Steve Wingenroth.

“ I still cant believe your gone. To my beautiful Aunt who gave me such wonderful memories for so many years, I love you so much. You always loved me like your daughter not just your niece and you too were my other mom. You put up with your daughter and I when we ran wild -you know like when you picked me up at the police station in the middle of the night that one time And so many other times I cant even begin to fit on here. I have the best memories or "our" sleepovers. I spent the best nights with you (we would literally stay up all night). I remember watching NYPD Blue marathons with you back in the day. I remember how funny you were and how you made everyone laugh ALL the time. I remember you in your Harley Davidson T-shirts and leggings looking so beautiful. I remember our times at the beach, our times swimming at your house (and sleeping over) all summer long. I remember how much you loved your kids and grandkids. I love the memories of you and my mom together- ALL of them. You were holding on to yourself so wouldn't go anywhere (insider) :) I love how you always reminded me of how much my Uncle Steve loved his "pissy sissy" I will always love you..may you rest in paradise with Uncle Steve. You'll be In my dreams ..Until we meet again.
