“ I am so very sorry to have read this and to learn that I missed being with Anna for so long. I had searched for her shortly after the move to Homestead. I met your wonderful parents when doing genealogy and they welcomed me into their home...they also brought Elizabeth to the Family Reunion a cousin and I had in 1989. I am the proud possessor of the Family Bible they gave to me. We shared many memories and laughs during our few times together. Now that I see you are no longer in New England, I will try to contact you. I have family in both Boca Raton & Marietta! God bless you and thank you for sharing your parents with me. Sherry Pries
