“ I remember this lady from Zimmerman restaurant. she was always so nice. I remember 1 day when i brought my baby daughter into the restaurant, she was so kind and kept admiring how she was and beautiful her red hair was the importance of this story is this was during the civil unrest, you see my daughter is a very light skinned child born on April 4, 1968 the day Martin Luther king was assassinated however ms Dottie didn't let those circumstances stop her. Rest in peace

“ Anna was the best neighbor you could ask for! She always made me laugh, and I loved her stories, especially how much she loved all of her family. We would play bingo together sometimes, and I was amazed at how she could watch so many sheets and never miss a beat! She loved life, and she loved her gardens and telling stories about her time with Raymond. when he passed, she kept his hat on top the fridge (if I remember correctly). That really touched me. She gave me flower bulbs and some other plants that I still cherish. She was an inspiration to all of us! This is a beautiful picture of her. She was a beauty inside and out. My love and prayers to her family.
