“ Anne and her family were neighbors of my family growing up. In grade school we walked together to Brecht School, had overnights on Fridays, rode our bikes, played hopscotch, and sometimes I went with her and her mom to Media Heights to swim. She was far more athletic than I, though she never bragged about her skills. I cherish these innocent childhood memories and am greatly saddened by her passing. My condolences to the Dana-Heath family. She will be sorely missed in this Life until we meet again.

“ Our families have been friends for a Very long time. Our parents were great friends enjoying Bridge and Golf together. I even took a few golf lessons from her at the Airport! She is a bright star that I admire greatly! Onward and upwards Anne. Your smile and ambition for life will be missed!

“ My DEEPEST condolences Bob and family. Anne, Cathy Rees Vincent and I were such good high school friends. Now both of those wonderful ladies are gone. Please know that you are in my prayers, and I pray that the manifest presence of the Lord God will surround you all with His abundant love and grace as you walk this new journey without her. I am just so stunned by this news.
