

Antonio Hammond

February 2, 2023

Antonio Hammond, was born to Essie Mae Devlin in Washington D.C. on February 9, 1962. He was later adopted and raised by Pearl and Earl Hammond, who loved him with all of their heart.

Antonio was blessed to reunite with his birth mother, Essie Mae Devlin in 2019. Antonio

Hammond passed away suddenly on Thursday, February 2, 2023, transitioning from labor to reward.

Antonio, affectionately known as “Tony,” gave his life to the Lord at a young age at Rays

Temple Church of God in Christ, at a summer revival. As an adult, he joined Ebenezer Baptist Church. He served on the Board of Trustees for many years, taking care of maintenance needs at the church whenever he could.

He graduated from J.P. McCaskey High School, Lancaster, PA. in 1980. After high school, Tony attended Millersville University, Millersville, PA. and later earned an HVAC Technician

Certification. He apprenticed with his father, Earl Hammond at Earl Hammond

Heating and Air

Conditioning for nearly 10 years. For twenty-six years, Tony owned and operated Hammond Heating & A.C. Inc., working primarily in residential HVAC sales and service, until his retirement in 2017. He was also a real estate investor in Lancaster, for many years. Tony loved to work on homes, making them look beautiful with his own craftsmanship. He loved working with his hands.

Tony enjoyed cooking on his barbecue pit for social, family and church events. Some of his favorite past times included: fishing, going to the beach, and playing a good card game of 500 Rummy and Spades. He also loved cars and collected classic convertible cars. Tony enjoyed a rich and fulfilling life surrounded by the love of his family.

He leaves to cherish his beloved memory: his dear wife of forty years, Rev. Vondol Hammond; daughters, Keshonda (Charles) Hawes and Nyisha Hammond; sons, Antonio (Danielle) Hammond II and Errol Hammond; granddaughters, Shaolin Gardner and Camila Hammond; and great-grandson, Jesiah Henry. He also leaves behind to cherish his memory: his beloved mother, Essie Mae Devlin; mother-in-law, Elizabeth Duvol; a brother, George Harvey; sisters, Tawanna Harvey, Teresa Harvey and Ladon Johnson; sister-in-law, Samantha Duvol and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends. He also has two “special brothers”, Brent

Thomas (Ace) and Morris McClary (Munchie).

Tony was preceded in death by his parents; Pearl and Earl Hammond; a father-in-law, William

Duvol; a brother, Walter Devlin Jr; a brother-in-law, William Duvol II, and a sister-in-law, Detra Duvol.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Tony’s Homegoing Service at Ebenezer Baptist Church, 701 N. Lime Street, Lancaster, PA 17602 on Saturday, February 18, 2023, at 11:00 A.M.

with Pastor Roland P. Forbes, Jr. officiating. The family will receive friends at the church on Saturday from 9:00 A.M. until the time of the service. Interment will follow at Millersville

Mennonite Cemetery.

“ To Vondol and family:

I have been at a loss for words since hearing of the passing of my dear friend Tony. But words I found, as Tony is my best friend. My family and I pray for God's comfort to embrace you all in memories of a beloved husband, father, and grandfather.

I believe it was 1982 when I met Tony at work. We worked together and started sharing what we were up to personally and talked about our families. That led to helping one another in small ways and then on to meeting each other's families. We experienced the building of our own families and continued to help one another, even doing some large projects here and there. We experienced a lot together over 40 years of what I believed to be a genuine caring for each other friendship. Yes, I fell out of contact for quite some time and would occasionally think of our friendship. I was overjoyed in connecting again with Tony a couple years back, and though it has not been that often, it was a pleasure to see and talk with my genuine friend again. I will never forget him. That look, talk, and smile. I have been blessed with a friendship that will endure eternity. May God bless you all and give you all comfort knowing what a great man he truly is.

Mike Martin and family.

“ Rev. Vondol Hammond , family, friends and church family.
We send our love to you and condolences to everyone. We are praying for you all realizing this is certainly a hard thing to deal with laying our husband for eternal rest.

Just know you have loved each other over 40 years, I believe you both were great together.

Weeping may endure for a night but truly joy cometh in the morning.
Much Love
