“ Archer was so very kind and friendly to my Mother Elizabeth Shenberger. He often stopped to chat with her as she sat on her Pine St. porch. She was unable at times to pay him in full, Archer often gave her a break. I was young at the time but remember his kindness to our family. RIP Archer

“ My name is John Sayer and Arch was an old buddy of mine for many years. He helped with some real estate holdings in the city, and he was honest and very dependable. His daughter worked with me a Wickersham elementary school. She was a student teacher, and I was very impressed with her, and we talked about Arch a lot. Her name was Francine and I want to give her my condolences here online. God Bless Arch
