“ *Arlene was a good women and a hard worker. She could work circles around some of the young girls. We worked together in the office at Weinstock and she was truly a blessing. Her mind was sharp and she was quite but mighty when working. I also remember at the end of every day she never left piles of paperwork laying on top of the desk. It was always but in the drawer till the next day. I pray she is at peace and may the sorrow's of one's left behind soon become lighter, happy and strong just like Arlene was. Bless you Arlene. “ Arlene was a very kind and generous woman who always supported the ministry and outreach of St. Paul’s UMC, Lancaster. She was especially interested in encouraging the children of the church and the surrounding community. Quick with a laugh and a smile, in her later years we made sure to get her back to Willow Valley in time for her vanilla ice cream and the start of the next sporting event in Philadelphia. Our van rides were full of lively discussions and a joy for The Lord was evident in Arlene’s interactions with all she encountered. We will remember her zest for life.
