“ 1987 lernte ich in Frankfurt am Main in Deutschland Kurt Wolff und seinen Sohn Dr Gerhard Wolff kennen. Gary wurde am 17. oder 18. Juni 1933 geboren und emigrierte 1939 mit seinen Eltern in die USA. Er lebte damals dort in San Francisco. Er liebte Spielzeug Eisenbahnen und sammelte sie.

“ Always calling him Mr. Wolff, I was so happy to have met such a fine man through my work trying to find assistance for him in his home. I was sad to hear of his passing but trust that he will rest in peace .
I never met Mr. Wolff in person but felt like I knew him through listening to his stories of his life. I will always remember the kind man he was!
I pray that any family member reading this will find comfort and peace in the loss of your loved one. Blessings to each one of you!

“ We will never forget Arno and his kindness!! Melanie and Rob introduced our daughter Kayla to Arno so they could talk about her trip she was taking to Germany!! He gave her a German language book and other little things to make her trip special!! When she returned oh the fun they had going over her pictures and talking about her trip!! She brought him a German scarf and the tears came to him!! He was so happy!! We only knew Arno for a short time but he has truly touched us in a way we will never forget!! Rest in peace Arno! We send our Deepest Sympathy to his family and friends!
