

Barbara J. Deatrck Wagner

March 28, 2019

Barbara J. Deatrck Wagner, 58, of Lancaster, died on Thursday, March 28, 2019 after a long illness at Hospice & Community Care, Mount Joy, PA. Born in Lancaster, she was the daughter of the late Robert W. and Laura Overly Deatrck.

Barbara was a JP McCaskey High School graduate Class of 1978. She was a Dental Assistant for EFDA. After a mission trip to Venezuela, Barb realized the need in Lancaster and facilitated the Water Street Rescue Mission Dental Clinic. She owned and operated Good to Go Café in Lancaster. Barbara loved sailing and went on many excursions in Florida and the Bahamas.

Her core for life revolved around the outdoors. Having her hands and feet in the dirt made her the happiest. She commonly referred to herself as a “Jackie of All Trades, A Mistress of None” as would tackle many remodeling projects, loved painting and tile work. Her greatest joy was to see someone else’s smile. Barbara would bridge people from different walks of life. Her love of life overflowed to all who she wished to be filled with joy. She will be missed by many friends and loved ones.

She is survived by her brother, Robert W. Deatrck, Jr, husband of Patti of Brielle, NJ; her two nephews, Robert W. Deatrck, III and Christopher Deatrck and her husband, Dwayne Wagner of Annville.

A gathering to share stories and memories of Barb will be held on Saturday, April 27, 2019 from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 Noon at The Groffs Funeral & Cremation Services, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster, PA. The tributes will begin at 11:00 a.m. Bring your favorite “Barb story” to share at that time.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Lancaster County SPCA, 848 S. Prince Street, Lancaster, PA 17603.
