“ Dear family,

We were saddened to learn of Barb's passing. We were just talking about her with some friends and wondering how she was and what she was doing. We knew Barb from the Eagles club and enjoyed talking with her when she was and wasn't working. She used to make us the best cheeseburgers and fries there. She once bought me a sweater for Christmas too. We also took her out for Charlie wings at Carlos and Charlie's because she liked them so much and she shared a recipe with me that she used to make them. She was very kind to us and spoke often of her grand kids. Sorry we hadn't had any contact in the years since the club but as we said, she had been on my mind recently. May you have peace and comfort at this difficult time and find joy in your memories of your Mom and Grammy.

*God bless,
Pat & Deb Busser*
