

Betty Romanos

July 17, 2016

Betty Romanos of Lancaster, PA, passed away peacefully at Calvary Fellowship Homes on July 17, 2016 at the age of 83, where she went to heaven to be at peace with her savior. Betty was the daughter of the late Ruth Smoker and the late Charles Davis. She was preceded in death by her son, James Mull and her daughter, Lisa Herr. She will be loved and missed by her family and her husband of almost 50 years, James Romanos. Betty is survived by her sons: David Romanos and his wife Kresson of Lititz, PA, Tom Romanos and his wife, Paula of Mount Joy, PA, and her daughter, Linda Wertz of Lititz, PA. In addition, Betty is survived by five grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, two nieces and her sister, Doris Garwitz of Millersville, PA.

Betty was a homemaker, loved spending time with her family and her dogs, especially her Shih Tzu, Sarah. She enjoyed puzzle books, watching her soap operas, talking on the phone to her friends and family and rooting for the Phillies and the Braves.

Please omit flowers. There will be no viewing. A Memorial Service will be held at the convenience of the family. The family would like to say "thank you" to Calvary Homes and the staff for all of their kindness, patience and care while taking care of Betty.

“ My favorite memory of Betty when we would come to visit was her love for husband, Jimmy, love for her children and grandchildren, and love for her little dog, Sarah. My husband, John, and I will hold these feelings in our heart.
