“ Our entire lives growing up, Brandon always had a big heart and a smile that could light up a room. When he was younger, he always wanted to be with the older siblings and would tattle if we told him to go away. He would sit there and smile so big when we got in trouble...I will miss his big hugs and his goofy personality. He always looked out for his family and had so much love. He was an amazing athlete and loved to be outdoors! Always up for an adventure! Watching him wrestle and play football, to see his talent and love of the game, was incredible to watch. He didn't know a stranger and would give you the shirt off his back, that's just who he was. Brandon was an amazing brother and friend. He was also an amazing uncle and he will truly be missed beyond words. We are sad the kids won't get to know him more and things won't be the same same without him. He is at peace now and forever in our hearts. Love you always little brother, until we meet again...
