

Bruce A. Bolack

November 27, 2015

Bruce A. Bolack, 70, of Lancaster, PA died on Wednesday, November 25, 2015 at his residence. Born in Lancaster, PA he was the son of late Andrew Bolack and Nancy Eby Learn.

Bruce was a graduate of J.P. McCaskey High school and also served in the United States Navy. For many years Bruce worked as a car estimator for the Manheim Auto Auction, Manheim, PA. Prior to working for the auction Bruce owned and operated his own auto body shop and car painting business in Lancaster City.

A few of Bruce's favorite pastimes included; fishing, reading, and doing crossword puzzles. He also loved taking his dog Tyler for walks. He was a lifetime member of the Amvets Post 19, the Riverside Club and the American Legion.

Bruce is survived by his lifelong partner Linda J. Dombach with whom he resided. Private services will be held.

“ Bruce was my father, I was his only child. I am just hearing of his passing today and I am beyond words. He was not only survived by his friend Linda, but by his only sister Betsy and his only daughter and his only grandson, Konnor. My email is Lsnider33@hotmail.com and my phone number is 970-371-4486. I sure would like to know how my father passed. Thank you.

“ Linda

So sorry to see Bruce passed. Glad he had you. I lived on Duke Street neighbors to Bruce and Betsy. I tried to call you after Terry's life celebration, but you must have given me a wrong #. I really miss Terry so much...can not even go past her house! Could not go to 50th class reunion without her.

I will keep you in my thoughts, I know you will miss Bruce, but know he is in a better place.

“ So sorry to hear of Bruce's passing.

I know his life was not easy. I will always remember his parents, and his sister, Betsy. I spent a lot of time with them when in HS. Last I saw Bruce was at his Mother's service.

All misunderstandings and difficulties are now behind you, RIP.

“ Linda, so sorry to hear about Bruce. I worked with Bruce in the early 70's at Forry & Hacker printers on East Liberty Street in Lancaster. During that time Bruce and I rented a two car garage on Cherry alley in Lancaster where we worked on our cars. We had many a good times at that garage. I had only seen Bruce a few times in the years to come, wish I could have talked to him more. I know he had a lot of friends that liked to work on cars and show them off riding around the "loop" when we were around town. To bad there won't be a service so some of his old friends could get together and talk about old times.

“ I'm sad to see you passed. Just last week I thought of you. Even though we only worked together for 5 years. You left a impression on me. As I have thought about you since then. Your life had it's good and bad, you always had a good heart. Glad to see Lindale remained part of your life. Along with your dog and fishing. You will be missed my friend. Rest in peace.
