In Loving Memory

Agosto 5, 1939—Abril 19, 2020

We Celebrate and honor the fruitful life of Carmen Rodriguez. Let us treasure her legacy. Her footprints and testimony remain in our lives. Carmen Rodriguez was called to cross the Great Gate on April 19th, 2020. Carmen was born in Juana Dias Puerto Rico, daughter of the late Jorge Perez-Pacheco & Claudia Alomar-Campos, Carmen was well known as “Chunga” and has lived at her home address for over 50 years.

Her house was well known in her community to be a place where everyone was welcome. Carmen had a kind heart for the needy, especially those without a home, she was a mom to many. She cared for people as she knew best, she was very well known and loved. In 2006, she understood that no good deed could ever fill her empty heart and found her savior Jesus Christ. She then became a neighborhood missionary as she would express her new joy to those who came to see her. Her new joy was her strength and it gave her hope.

“Mom” we will miss you. “We will not say Goodbye, but until later”.

“Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live.”

-For some, joy and peace can come early, for others it can come later, for Mom, her joy and peace came on God’s time.

Hna. Carmen Rodriguez was blessed with 9 children, 2 of which are deceased & 2 Granddaughters raised as her own; the 7 surviving children are William, Hector, Fidel Rodriguez, Belinda Rosas, Denise Rodriguez, Fernando Rodriguez, & Martha Dixon; Carmen Dettrey, Belinda Maldonado.

A Total of 25 Plus Grandchildren and a Total of 70 plus Great Grandchildren.

Carmen Rodríguez Surviving Siblings are as follows; Claudia Alicia Cotto “Ali”, Roberto “tato”, Carmen Milagros “coca”, Catalina “Catin”, Isabel Vidro “Isa”, Luis Lorenzo “purulo” Perez- Alomar, Norma Alomar.
