

Catalino (Tony Nino) Pena

May 10, 2020

Catalino (Tony Nino) Pena, 79, passed away at Manor Care Nursing Home on Sunday, May 10, 2020, after a short battle with COVID-19.

Born in Patillas, Puerto Rico, he was the son of the late Blasino Santiago and Dolores Pena. He was preceded in death by his wife of 32 years, Mary Pena, son, Edgardo Santiago-Perez, and stepson, Dennis (foot) Boyer. He is survived by his stepchildren, Rene Boyer, Mary Taylor, Mae Saab and grandchildren, along with many brothers and sisters, nieces and nephews consisting of the Santiago-Pena-Rivera-DeJesus-Boyer families, both on the mainland and his beloved native island of Puerto Rico.

He retired from J.L. Clark, and was an avid domino player, enjoyed telling stories, and will be missed by his very large and loving family.

My thoughts and prayers are with the Family at this difficult time. Tony was a very nice man who I knew from working at JL Clark.
