

Catherine H. Gregory

May 10, 2020

Catherine H. Gregory born to Clinton J Hahn and Elizabeth (Crouse)Hahn on September 15, 1919 in Bath, PA passed away on Sunday, May 10, 2020 at Homestead Village in Lancaster, PA.

Graduated from Ursinus with a BA in Social Studies and a minor in Latin in 1941. Studied Chinese at Cornell and Yale. Also learned Japanese at Naganuma Language School

Married to Paul Radcliffe Gregory in 1941 and shared a church in Mountville, PA

Served as a missionary in China and Japan for the Evangelical and Reformed Church (now United Church of Christ) for 10 years.

Home schooled her daughters for 6 years, taught Social Studies and Latin at Hellertown, HS, Boyertown HS, Abington JH, and Montclair Kimberly Academy. Also worked in the HR Department at Mountainside Hospital.

Her husband, Paul died in 2012.

Mother to Nancy G Black (m.James), Judith L Brun (m.Robert), and Lynne A Porpiglia (m. Joseph)

Grandmother of Melanie Wood, Joseph Porpiglia, Michael Black, Kimberly Black Angela Brun, Remi Brun,

Great grandmother of 9

Retired to Homestead Village and has been active there and at Church of the Apostles. She worked for the homelss with clothing and food drives and visited people who were in the nursing units at Homestead.

In lieu of flowers please make donations to Church of the Apostles, UCC Mission Board, Heifer International, Bread for the World, Habitat for Humanity, or Lancaster Theological Seminary

We hope to have a celebration of life when this isolation is over.

Tribute Wall

“ Catherine H. Gregory

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ We remember Kit as the lively matriarch of her clan and longtime friend of the Stowe family. We especially enjoyed visiting with her at Deering NH well into her golden years. We will miss her. With affection, Priscilla Hoffman-Stowe

Priscilla Hoffman-Stowe - May 15, 2020 at 02:45 PM

“ Kit was such a positive uplifting person! She always greeted me warmly and showed great interest in what I was doing as a professor and a pastor. I admired her greatly and am grateful that her life touched mine.

Anabel Proffitt

Anabel Proffitt - May 15, 2020 at 01:26 PM

“ Thankful to have known Kit and Paul through my late husband, Jim Bright, and of their wonderful ministry. The church and world have been blessed by them. In sympathy, Sally Bright

Sally Bright - May 14, 2020 at 10:33 AM

BC

“Kit was a dear friend of our mother, Betty Charles, at Homestead. I felt honored to visit with her and to hear of her many life adventures. She was not only a wonderful friend, but an inspiration. I feel the Lord blessed you if you had the opportunity to know dear, Kit. Bless your family. She loved you so much.

Barbara Charles

Barbara Charles - May 12, 2020 at 02:18 PM