

Charles C. Bradley

March 9, 2026

Charles C. Bradley, 89, formerly of Willow Street, PA, passed away on Monday, March 9, 2026 surrounded by his family. Born in Lancaster, PA, he was the son of the late Charles C. Bradley, Sr. and Isabella (Free) Bradley.

He worked for Armstrong World Industries as a Millwright and was a CW4 for the 3622nd maintenance division of the PA Army National Guard.

Charles' lifelong passion was woodworking, including making furniture and boats, and carving his beloved shore birds. Throughout his life, he was a Boy Scout Leader, fisherman, car rebuilder, Road Runner Cartoon enthusiast, chipmunk, squirrel, and bird feeder, and a "jack of all trades".

He is survived by his wife, Barbara P. Bradley with whom they shared 67 years of marriage; his son, Charles E. Bradley (Marijo), his daughter, Susan Bradley; his four grandchildren, Aaron Bradley (Carolyn Zimmerman), Adam Bradley, Isabella Eyerly (Matt Kilpatrick), and Katherine Christopher (Christian); and his two great-grandchildren, John Charles Bradley and Kolby Leigh Christopher.

Charles was preceded in death by his sister, I. Diane Greenawalt.

“ My condolences to Charlie Bradley's family. I worked with Charlie for about 20+ years at Armstrong World Industries Innovation Center. Charlie could do just about everything and knew just about everything. He was my mentor in the Millwright field, and I learned so much from him and I will always be grateful. He also taught me wood carving which I still do today.
