

Charles E. Brubaker

November 4, 2016

Charles E. "Charlie" Brubaker, 97, of Lancaster, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 4, 2016. He was the son of the late Charles and Anna Swenk Brubaker and was preceded in death by his wife, Jane E. Wagner Brubaker and daughter Sandra J. Brubaker.

Charles was a proud U. S. Army veteran during World War II having served in the Pacific Theatre of Operations. He was an avid golfer, winning the 1954 Lancaster City-County Tournament. Charles enjoyed music, especially the banjo, reading, and following football and baseball on TV. He retired from Sperry New Holland in 1981.

Charles will be lovingly remembered by his daughter Linda A. Brubaker of Lancaster, his four grandchildren, Kimberly, (Gary) Wenger, Connie, (Robert) Kruppenbach, Jeffrey, (Liesa) Knippenberg, and Jennifer Sheirich, 10 great grandchildren, eight great-great grandchildren, and one niece, Carol A. Horn.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to Celebrate his Life at The Groffs Family Funeral & Cremation Services, Inc, 528 W. Orange Street (corner of W. Orange and Pine Street) Lancaster, PA on Friday, November 11, 2016. The family will receive friends at The Groffs from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 12:00 p.m. Interment will be held at Conestoga Memorial Park. Military honors will be rendered by the Red Rose Veterans Honor Guard. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent in Charles' memory to The American Diabetes Association, P.O. Box 11454, Alexandria, VA 22312.

“ We are so sorry to learn of your father's passing. We only met him briefly for a time or two but especially when we shared a Thanksgiving meal with him at our house a while ago. Since I am a cousin of Carol Horn, we did get updates about how he was doing, and we know he will be missed by all who knew him. Our deepest sympathy to you and your family.
