

Charles P. Green

October 8, 2010

Charles P. Green, 66, of Lancaster, died on Wednesday, October 6, 2010, at Lancaster General Hospital. Born in Salisbury Township, he was the son of the late Samuel and Elizabeth Brenner Green.

Charles was retired from Dutchtown Country Club in Lancaster. Most recently he had been working as a greeter for the Anchorage Breakfast Program at St. James Episcopal Church, where he was a member. He was a former member of Mount Hope Church, New Holland. Charles loved the Indian culture. He enjoyed talking to people, watching antique shows, cooking and gospel music. One of his favorite singers was Shirley Caesar and he liked the Bobby Jones Gospel Hour.

He is survived by sisters Irene Miller, of Narvon, and Isabelle Jackson, Mountville, a childhood friend Albert Colon, of Philadelphia, and nieces and nephews.

A Rite of Christian Burial and Eucharist will be held at St. James Episcopal Church, 119 N. Duke St., Lancaster, at 11 a.m. Tuesday, October 12, 2010, the Rev. Lynn Hade will be celebrating. Interment will be in St. James Memorial Churchyard. As per Charles' request, any flowers sent are to be white and if you plan to attend the service he would like you to try to wear white. Memorial contributions in Charles' name may be made to St. James Episcopal Church's Anchorage Breakfast Program, 119 N. Duke St., Lancaster, PA 17602.

Tribute Wall

“ Charles P. Green

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ Thanks for this glorious alcrtie. One other thing is that almost all digital cameras come equipped with some sort of zoom lens that allows more or less of that scene to get included by simply “zooming” in and out. These types of changes in focusing length are generally reflected within the viewfinder and on large display screen at the back of the actual camera.

Luckyjoyce - December 21, 2015 at 11:38 PM