Some folks would rather have houses and land....some folks choose silver and gold...these things they treasure and forget their souls....I've decided to make Jesus my Choice. Just thinking back on days gone by and I how I use to love to hear Charlotte sing this song. We have shared a lot of good and fun memories through out life. Will always remember you.

*Sleep in Heavenly peace my sister, Rev. Charlotte W. Evans.
To the family you are in my prayers.*

I met Rev. Charlotte Evans when she was assigned pastor-ship at Payne Memorial AMEC in Holland, Ohio. She preached the word that God gave her and was a good leader who was attentive to its members and potential members. I will always remember her and her children.

I have known Charlotte all my life. I can remember her Trial Sermon at Mt Moriah Baptist Church the first female to preach I so admired and look up to Charlotte because she walk and talk and taught all of us young women back then to let Jesus lead us. Today my sister Cheryl Brown is an ordained Elder my cousin Nancy Allen-Haskell is an ordained Elder and I now will begin my preaching walk with God my time is now Rev Charlotte Evans and I thank you for always walking talking teaching all of us about Jesus Rest my dearest sweet friend your wings welcomes you. My love always Joanne D Brown

“ To the Weaver and Evans family, my sincere condolences on the passing of Charlotte. I met her when I was a teenager, and friends with her younger sisters, Sheila and Donna. She has always been a hard working, confident woman of faith. I spoke to her a few years back and she was still her warm and helpful self. I can only imagine the Lord's words to this faithful woman who carried so much in her lifetime. The Bible says to take note of those around us who are examples of what we should aspire to be in Christ. To me, Reverend Charlotte is that woman. May she dance around the throne in the sweet rest that only God gives, saying "it was all worth it!!"
