Charlotte Staedtler, 94 of Willow Street, PA, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Saturday, April 4, 2015. She was the wife of the late Edward Staedtler to whom she was married for over 68 years, and the daughter of the late Daniel Arthur and Lottie Fisher Blake.

Charlotte was raised in Southwest Philadelphia and graduated from West Philadelphia High School as salutatorian of her class. She attended Pierce Business School and Philadelphia College of Bible. Charlotte married Second Lt. Edward H Staedtler and raised their first born on her own for 2 years while he was fighting overseas in WWII. Charlotte started a group in her church called "Forever Young" as a way for those who were middle aged and above to gather socially and spiritually. She served as a leader in Christian Woman's Club and was the co-owner/operator of Lifeline Christian Supply Bookstore in Levittown. Charlotte was known for her hospitality and even following retirement, she welcomed many into her home for Bible studies and other occasions.

Anyone who knew Charlotte will remember her ever-present smile and her willingness to put the Lord first in her life and share the joy of the Lord with her family and others.

“ To the Staedtler Family

First of all, I am very sorry for your loss. I remember Mrs. Staedtler from her days in Levittown. My grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Warren, also from Forsythia Gate, considered her one of her dearest friends. Although my grandmother was quite a few years older, Mrs. Staedtler ALWAYS included my grandmother in many of her activities, especially Christian Woman's Club. I can just hear my grandmother saying, Charlotte this, Charlotte that, and it was often about her family. Again, sorry for your loss, but I just wanted to let you know what an influence she had on my grandmother's life.

We sure miss you mom. You were the valedictorian at high school When I was confused with Latin you helped me and I ended up winning the Latin award for Neshaminy High School. You and dad taught me to love the Lord and follow his commands. You faithfully brought us kids in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord and we are eternally thankful for that. You and dad instilled the work ethic in us early and assigned us jobs and responsibilities from the start. Believe me, that helped me in Vietnam and later in my career.

Although we will meet again in heaven I miss you here.
