“ It was an honor to care for Clara as her physician for several decades. Despite a myriad of health problems, she always came into the office smiling, and never had a bad word to say about anybody. Her faith and her family were of the utmost importance to her. I know she will be missed, as she brightened so many lives.

“ I remember going to visit Aunt Clara and Uncle Ben in their first apartment. They both worked hard to fix up the apartment as it wasn't in great shape when they moved there. They did such a good job that the landlord raised the rent.
