“ Jimbo! You were my favorite client. You challenged all of us to be better nurses, more patient people, & gave us unconditional love! I miss our lunches at Ruby Tuesdays, & singing Christmas songs with you all year round. We were your day to day family, & you were ours when we couldn't be with ours. I'd give anything to write a note for you now. You will forever be in my heart, & will never be forgotten. I love you Jimbo!!! 🥹🙏 Rest peacefully love!

“ Jimbo!!! You left too soon. I met Jim about 2.5 years ago. We were “best buds” and I miss him dearly. I'll never forget your Birthday and the numerous amount of notes we wrote together. We always enjoyed sitting at the kitchen table, listening to music, and enjoying our morning coffee (decaf of course). You always loved our outings and shopping trips. You could never get my name right, I'll forever be Stephanie. When we meet again I'll bring that Big Mac and Diet Coke. Rest In Peace Best Bud.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Jimmy and seeing him almost weekly for many years. His family was so important and provided a tremendous amount of support. They obviously loved him as much as he loved them. I was sorry to learn of his passing and my sympathy goes out to Jimmy's family.

“ I had the pleasure of being in jimmys life for almost 3 years. We were besties for sure. I loved him like family. Him and I had lots of good times together. He was a foodie for sure, so we always tried finding new restaurants to explore. I'm very saddened by his loss. I will miss him dearly until the day comes that I can see him again. I know the first thing he's gonna say is "were you been". He had many moods, but mostly he was a happy and funny guy, with a side dish of bossiness. He was a very affectionate man who loved his hugs. And he loved those who loved him. He has definitely left a stamp on my heart. RIP Jimbo.
