“ We were saddened to hear that Curt was ill and now of his passing. In the 35 plus years that we knew Curt he was always a good friend, someone that we could count on. He will never be forgotten. We have great memories of the good times, filled with laughter and fun. Our sympathy goes out to Rose and family - hoping that all the great memories will help give comfort at this time of loss. Sincerely, Ted and Wilma

“ While it is extremely difficult to lose ones we love, fond memories of the times they brought us joy and laughter bring us comfort. May fine memories as well as the love and support from family and friends bring you strength. Also, may God's promise that we will soon welcome our loved ones back - happy and healthy - bring your family much needed strength to endure this extremely difficult time. (Revlation 21:3,4)

“ Curt was the epitome of an employers perfect employee. He always came to work (only missed 3 days in almost 10 years of service), he was never late, he never complained about anything, he did his job to the best of his ability on every project he was assigned, he never asked for anything, he was always in a great mood and could brighten everyone's day as he always had a positive attitude and personality. Everyone enjoyed working with Curt, you never knew what might pop out of his mouth, but guaranteed it made you smile if not laugh a little. He will be greatly missed by everyone here!

Our deepest condolences and sympathy to Rose and their entire family.

“ To Rose and family, Curtis will truly be missed. Bob and I have known Curtis for a long time. He always was willing to offer a hand to help. He always had this loving, fun and vivacious personality. Always had a story or two to tell you, and a wonderful demeanor that you couldn't help but love. He always had great value and work ethic and cared about others. Curtis will truly be missed by us and all the people who were fortunate to be in contact with Curtis. Love and Condolences from Bob and Terry Nolt
