“ My sincerest condolences to Cindy’s family and friends. I’ve had the honor of knowing Cindy for the past 12 years; from our time at Leffler Energy to these last 6 years together at DentalEZ. It’s hard to put into words how deeply I will miss her. Cindy wasn’t just a coworker; she was pure joy in every day. We had inside jokes about everything!! Even something as simple as how she poured her lemonade. And how when every shift ended she would shout LOGOUT!” loud enough for the whole department to hear. Those little moments are the ones I will hold onto forever.

She was hilarious, but also one of the most caring, tender souls I’ve ever met. When Cindy called you a friend, she meant it with her whole heart. She was the type of person who would ride with you until the wheels fell off!! The most supportive person literally, if you told her you were going to start selling keychains tomorrow, she’d be the first to place an order, no questions asked. Her loyalty was unmatched!

I will miss her movie/show recommendations and her funny reviews, but more than anything, I will miss the love, light, and kindness she poured into everyone around her. Cindy had a way of making people feel seen, supported, and loved and that is a rare gift.

Thank you, Cindy, for every laugh, conversation, and every moment of friendship. I will carry your memory with me always.

With Lots of Love,

Jasmine

“ My Aunt Cindy was one of my best friends. We shared every secret, many laughs, many tears and our passion to save everyone. I will forever cherish our memories of going to the outer banks together. Another great memory is when I was a young child, she and her husband would walk us up to the park, a whole gang of us. We’d stop at Turkey hill for some iced tea and we’d play up there for hours. It was such a treat. I will miss our “Dear whisper all” emails and text messages. Most of all, I will miss her kind, loving spirit and infectious laughter. Fly High💕

“ Cindy will always be one of my favorite Leffler ladies!

She made that the trauma of the “call center life” bearable with her witty sense of humor and infectious laugh! She had the biggest heart and would do anything for anyone even if it meant the shoes on her feet. She truly is one of a kind!

I try to find comfort in knowing that she is finally with Derrick again and that the void in her heart is whole again. May you rest in peace my dear friend 💕

My sincerest condolences to Cindy’s family. Sending you all of my comforting and healing vibes. ☐
