

Dagan Robert Bailey

September 23, 2017

Dagan Robert Bailey was born at Lancaster General Hospital Lancaster, PA on Saturday, October 23, 1993. Dagan was chosen to be called into the presence of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Saturday, September 23, 2017.

Dagan lost his life due to injuries he sustained doing what he loved, riding motorcycle.

Dagan was a graduate of Veritas Press Scholars Academy and had attended Pennsylvania College of Health Sciences.

Dagan's charming smile, infectious laugh, and intensely loving hugs will be forever imprinted in our hearts. Dagan loved and cared about his family and friends with a passionate intensity that drove him to encourage others to be their absolute best and when they could not, he gently walked alongside them with grace and unending support. He was a fierce protector and defender of those he loved.

He had a zeal for life. He enjoyed basketball, soccer, running, boxing, snowboarding, and longboarding with his dog, Dutchess. Dagan was an avid reader and great debater. He was driven to learn, listen and grow. He had a great desire to experience the world around him through food and travel.

Dagan was not slowed down by difficult circumstances that entered his life, he faced them with determination to overcome with justice and truth.

Dagan is survived by his mother, Rebekah S. Bailey, his father, Kevin R. Bailey, his brother, Cade Bailey, and his sister, Malon Bailey. Dagan is the grandson of Walter Huss and Susan Huss Paul and Richard and Deborah Almond. Dagan was well loved by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

As a family we are incredibly thankful for those who responded at the scene with quick thinking actions to care for Dagan. We are grateful to all the first responders, doctors, nurses, support staff at LGH and representatives from Gift of Life. Dagan's last gift was giving part of himself to provide life to four others through organ donation.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to United Disability Services in Lancaster, PA, attn: Service Dogs Training, and the Boys and Girls Club of Lancaster.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Calvary Church, 1051 Landis Valley Road, Lancaster, PA 17602, on Thursday, September 28, 2017 at 6:30 p.m. A time to greet the family will follow. All are welcome to attend.

"My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever." Psalm 73:26

“ I met Dagan at the hospital where he was visiting a friend. I met him for just a few minutes, however, in that very short time I sensed a young man who was faithful to a friend and very loving. Praying for the family and the memorial service.

“ I remember the very first time I saw Dagan. He and Rebekah had just moved in to the house next to mine. I was out side building a new larger deck on the back of my house and I noticed this little boy watching me from his back door. He spent hours just watching what I was doing. He would disapear for a little bit, but before long he was back watching again. I did not have any children of my own at that time and I couldn't get over how cute it was that he was that interested in watching me build my deck. So I went and bought him a little toy toolbox with a hammer, screw driver, saw and tape measure in it. Now we had not actually introduced ourselves yet. So I nervously knocked on their front door and introduced myself. Hoping it wasn't too weird, I explained that I thought it was so cute that he was watching the building going on outback and asked if it was alright that I got him a little toolbox. That was the beginning of a long friendship with Dagan, Rebekah and their growing family of Kevin, Cade and Malon.

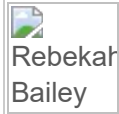

While Dagan will be greatly missed, we need to take comfort in knowing the Good Lord has an ultimate plan for all of us. When his plan takes someone from us, we just have to rely on and ask him to comfort us and help us in our time of grief and sorrow.

May God bless and comfort Kevin, Rebekah, Cade and Malon in their time of need.

May we all rejoice in the memories and time we had with Dagan and take comfort in knowing he will be waiting to see us all again in the glorious kingdom of God.

“ Dagan, you will be truly missed. You're an old friend who helped me get through certain obstacles in my life and always helped keep a smile on my face. Simple things like your smile & laugh made my day better. God bless your family who is going through this pain, it's not easy. I will see you some day. I'll miss you
