

Darryl S. McComsey

September 24, 2017

My name was Darryl, but you can call me "Mac".

No, I don't have another brother named Darryl.

Actually, my brother's name is David. I have a sister too; her name is Pam. I was born on June 29th 1961 to Dorothy J. (Hagel) and Wayne L. McComsey. I was the youngest of three children and I grew up in Lancaster County, PA. I made lots of friends growing up, I had a lot of fun, I worked hard, I loved deeply. I had to struggle at times... it wasn't easy but I did it.

I graduated from Conestoga Valley High School and completed my vocational training to be a welder at Brownstown. Welding and Steel Fabrication became my livelihood. I was employed by Goodhart Sons, Inc. after high school and worked there for 15 years. Later I would join the team at Herr Industrial, Inc. to be their Shipping and Receiving Manager, but enough about work...

I loved to be outside. I loved the outdoors and everything that came with it. I loved to hunt, fish, and trap. There was just something about waking up when it was still dark, going up to the mountains, and watching the sun's first rays hit the trees. I remember how the sun moved over the valley, how it reflected my breath in the cold air, and how the light came through the trees like a kaleidoscope, creating shapes with light and shadow. I'll always have those memories with me.

I have a son and I am incredibly proud of him. In fact, he was the best part of me. His name is Chad Joseph and I raised him to be a better man than I was. I wanted Chad to have all the advantages that I didn't have growing up. I wanted him to learn from my mishaps and mistakes along the way. I did my best to be honest and to make sure he knew how much I loved him. My daughter-in-law, Maria, thinks I did a great job raising him and she made sure I knew it too. My greatest joy was to see my son become a man and know that he found happiness and love.

I leave behind a lot of family and friends that I couldn't say goodbye to... It was a tough decision to make; I didn't mean for it to happen this way. But I wanted you all to know that I'm taking the love you have shared with me on this, my final journey home. I heard one time that when you get to where I'm heading, that you are reunited with everyone you've ever loved, past, present, and future... that there is no such thing as "time" as I knew it on Earth. Take comfort in knowing that we're all together again somewhere and that I'll always remember the love and good times we shared.

Thanks for being a part of my story.

"Mac"

Darryl Scott McComsey, 56, was delivered back into the loving arms of his mother in Heaven on Sunday, September 24, 2017. There will be a private service held for family on Saturday, October 7th, 2017. A celebration of his life will be held on Sunday, October 8th, 2017 in Stevens, PA. Friends are welcome to stop by and share their memories. Please contact: www.facebook.com/cjmccomsey for more information.

Tribute Wall

“ Darryl S. McComsey

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ Darryl always had a smile on his face, always talked to you. Being kind to everyone was one of his greatest things i remember about him. Sorry to hear he has passed. keep him alive in your hearts and never let anyone keep you from sharing your memory's with him.

glenn rudy - October 05, 2017 at 07:59 PM

“ So sorry for your loss, he must have be a wonderful man. Keep his memories close to your heart's

Dawn - October 02, 2017 at 11:06 PM

“ I am sorry for this great loss. Darryl was a good friend of my brother Craig in their teenage years.

Connie - October 01, 2017 at 07:24 PM

“ Wow! I feel cheated that I never met this wonderful man. May all of his memories keep you at peace. Sue

sue - September 30, 2017 at 04:00 AM

“ Mac was a great friend, we met in High School in an English class and our friendship bonded from there. We drifted apart as I went off to the military where we lost contact with each other. We did bump into one another after I got back once but our work schedules kept us separated. Even through all of that the day we bumped into each other was just like we never missed a step.... may peace find you and we will meet on the other side ole friend

Harrison Hackney - September 29, 2017 at 08:46 PM

“ Carla Yando lit a candle in memory of Darryl S. McComsey

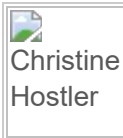

Carla Yando - September 29, 2017 at 04:29 PM

Chad & Maria, Beautiful tribute to a wonderful man that raised one heck of a son! My thoughts are with you both.....Hugs!

Carla Yando - September 29, 2017 at 04:32 PM

“ I didn't know Darryl, but after reading his obituary, I wish I had. Rest in peace my friend.

Christine Hostler - September 29, 2017 at 03:52 PM

Chad & Maria, Beautiful tribute to a wonderful man that raised one heck of a son! My thoughts are with you both..... Hugs!

Carla Yando - September 29, 2017 at 04:30 PM

“ Wayne and CJ,
Growing up I considered Darryl as another brother. Phil and I played with him constantly. I have very fond memories of spending time with him playing football, baseball. Riding bikes. Climbing trees in the woods. Sleeping outside in the back yard. I am very sorry for your loss. I liked CJ's memorial of "D" (what I called him) on Facebook. Sending prayers to your family at this most difficult time.

Cindy Nolt Godfrey

---

Cindy Godfrey - September 29, 2017 at 10:27 AM

TB

“ Growing up you were one of the happiest, funniest and one of my most favorite people to be around. Your love and laughter could light up a room. I have so many good memories of times with our family and you being so carefree and fun. You fought your demons like so many of us do, but you always made time for family. I remember when Karina was really little and you taking the time to play with her with a tape measure for a good hour just to entertain her. Regardless of anything you were a good man and I will always think of you with smiles and love. Fly high and rest easy, until we meet again.

---

Tammy Brown - September 29, 2017 at 10:01 AM

AH

“ May you find the peace you were seeking. May your family find the comfort they need in the memories they shared together. RIP MAC

---

ah - September 29, 2017 at 08:13 AM

LW

“ " MAC " I never met you till today. Now after reading you story you made another friend. ( RIP ) Another New New Friend, LW

---

Les Wentz - September 29, 2017 at 07:23 AM

HH

Ditto, add me to your list of new friends.

---

Hazel Hilton - September 29, 2017 at 12:02 PM

SQ

I loved reading your obituary. It was very positive and personal. Thanks for sharing your live story with us;)

---

susie q - September 29, 2017 at 01:05 PM

SF

*Dear Wayne and family, So sorry to hear of Darryl's passing. Such a beautiful remembrance in the paper. I remember a few good talks we had in church. Darryl had a good heart and he was always willing to help someone in need. I know he will find peace in Heaven. Sincerely,
Sam Field*

---

Sam Field - September 29, 2017 at 06:29 PM