“ Dear Paula,

So sorry to hear about Dave passing away. I apologize for not getting to Hospice sooner. I can't stop thinking about all the wonderful times we had with our family at the Host Farm. We have lost so many others that have gone before us. Dave was the best, you could always count on him for advice and for direction. Everything had to be perfect! and it was. He taught us respect for one another and how to be professional. Always putting our guests first. Please take care of yourself, he only wanted the best for you and you family no matter what.

Fondly, Janyce & Steve

“ Dear Paula and Family,
Please accept my condolences. I worked with David at the Host Town for many years. I drive by route 501 and when I pass by where you use to live I wondered how you, David and the family are. As part of the Host family I miss those days a lot. I had some great memories from those times. Brahams as some of those called him back then was a large part of that. He was always smiling, just like his picture you posted in the newspaper. I remember fondly the Cabana appreciation parties with clam bakes and Dave making sure everything was perfect for our guests and being one of the first in line. Playing poker occasionally. Yes, I thought of him a lot over the years and am sorry to hear Of his passing. He will be missed. He will join my half brother, Barry March and eventually we will all be together. Steve Witmer - X - Executive Chef at the Host Town and too many other positions to mention from when I was 16, busboy at the Host Farm to age 35 as Asst. Food and Beverage Mgr. at he Host Town.

“ *Dear Paula and Family,
Please accept our condolences on Dave's passing. We are sorry we cannot attend the services for Dave due to Ritchie's health problems. As part of the Host Family, Dave certainly added to the social and cultural enrichment of our community. Ritchie believes Dave will be waiting with a cup of coffee and a bagel to pick up where they left off on their last journey down memory lane. After enjoying a 50 year friendship with Dave and lots of good memories, he will be missed. Love, Ritchie and Valerie*
