“ We wrote a tribute to David on Sunday already, but are not sure it went through?

My husband Charles and I have lived at # 1272 M.B. Road for 21 years now, and have witnessed David's loving care not only for the property, but also to assist his father so lovingly during his later years, where a lot of care was asked for.

David was a gentle soul, with lots of kindness and knowledge.

We miss him and were shocked to read of his death. We had always hoped to see him - maybe at least at the City Market - where he loved to shop.

We know that David was very reserved, but he always seemed outgoing to us.
