

Deborah Diehl Maser

April 7, 2020

Deborah Diehl Maser, 69, of Columbia, PA, passed away on Tuesday, April 7, 2020 at ManorCare Nursing Center in Lancaster. She was born in Lancaster on February 2, 1951, the daughter of the late Ralph and Nancy (Brinkman) Diehl.

She formerly owned Tanning Unlimited, located on East Orange Street in Lancaster, then relocated as Rent A Tan on Lincoln Highway. Deb was a veterinary technician working for Dr. Rick Baron of Lititz Warwick Run Animal Clinic.

She possessed a love of all animals especially dogs and cats. She supported several animal rescues as well as the Humane League of Lancaster County.

Surviving is her partner of well over 30 years Gene D. Rehm; and her brother, Terry Diehl, husband of Kathy of Melbourne, FL.

Private Services will be held at Conestoga Memorial Park on Monday, April 13, 2020.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Humane League of Lancaster County, 2195 Lincoln Highway East, Lancaster, PA 17602, in her memory.

“ I was so sad to read about Deb in the paper yesterday. Our friendship dated back to when we were 5 years old But the last number of years we didn't keep in touch. My prayers and thoughts are with you Gene at this sad time.

Gene, sorry I couldn't come with Harry today. Just know my thoughts are with you during this sad time. You know if you need ANYTHING all you have to do is call. Deb is in a better place now. She is probably catching Aunt Metie and her mom up with all the happenings. Know you are loved ❤️

“ So sad the passage of a tender hearted woman. Peace has finally come for Deb after a long struggle. Never forget the smile that light up the room. Gene may you find your memories filled with the Love that you and Deb shared. I remember her laugh when she caught on to my corny jokes and never forget a tiny woman with such a Big Heart. Lotta love too you both RIP
