“ Dear Debbie, I know you will be very missed. I just found out about you passing not too long ago. You and I worked many years at CV before your retirement. I remember so many good things about you. You were a good mom to your son. I remember that pretty Corvette you always drove to work. and the beautiful Bridesmaid dresses you made for me on my wedding day 36 years ago. You will be missed.

“ To the family of Deborah Meyer,
You have my deepest and heartfelt condolences and sympathy, for the loss of your Mother.
Mrs. Debbie,
Was truly a Beautiful Woman,
Inside and out.
She was truly a Joy to be around.
She had a Smile that would light up any room and, a Heart ❤️ of Gold ☐
She will truly be Missed by all who knew and Loved Her!!
She was also very Crafty.
I have brought many things from her as well.
I truly will miss seeing how she would be Dancing and leading the Elks line in.
As only she could do!!!
She always said to me,
Girlfriend that Lip Gloss is Popping!!
Every time that she saw me.
For me, it's the little things that meant the most to me and she knew that.
She also always Greeted you with a Smile on her face.
Even if she wasn't feeling the best, it didn't matter.
She never ever showed her Pain!!
I'm really and truly going to miss her Immensely!!!
May God,
Continue To Bless Her Family and, Elk's Family As Well.
May God Continue To Give You All The Peace 🕊️ That Surpasses
All Understanding, Now and Forever More Until The Ends Of All Times ❤️
Sweetie Take Your Rest Now,
Sleep In Peace 🕊️
For A Job Well Done and Deserved!!!
Stella Darlene.

“ My deepest condolences to the family and friends of Deb Myers. She was a long time co-worker and friend from Conestoga View. She was a very talented lady from crafts to sewing. I still have a lot of items she made for me. We had a lot of fun working together on the 6 th floor. Deb, Barb and myself were the LPN's on the unit. We had dressed for one of the resident picnics in old time costumes "like colonial type clothes. Boy did we sweat our butts off. But we managed to entertain the residents and have some fun. RIP Deb, you will be missed. Jane Strohm.

“ Wow this💔😞

Parrish Myers I would like to extend my condolences to you and your entire family on the loss of your mother Deborah Myers.

Little did I know way back when, Deb was forming a family like bond with my uncles and their families in her neighborhood on Franklin and Clermont streets . Fast forward and the bond included my aunts and my grandparents, my mother and brother.

In the midst of this, Deb and my mother, bonded through their interaction in the Elks. They quickly became roadies going to meetings, parades, conventions, roommates, lip-synch contests, etc. At one point Deb was part of my moms security team while my mom was the Daughter State President. (Yeah that's right try something😡👊😞)

Deb also custom made my daughters prom dress 💜 when she graduated from high school. Deb most recently shared with me that my son was a pleasure to be around and unprompted he had escorted her safely to her car the last time she saw him. 💙

Man when you look back on these things, and can be glad that someone like this was part of your village! 🙌🙌

My mother was at a loss for words, which is rare for her, then after she reminisced over some good times with Deb she ended with she's definitely going to miss her. 💜

*Thanks for sharing your mother with us Parrish💔

“ As the sun goes down on this chapter of life, we bid farewell to a special woman, Aunt Deb. Your laugh, your smile, your charisma, and your selflessness all of it will remain etched in our hearts forever. You may be gone, but you leave behind an indelible imprint that will continue to inspire us for years to come. Rest easy, Aunt Deb, and know that you are loved, cherished, and adored by all who know you.

It's hard to imagine a world without our "Aunt Deb", I know your dancing with the angels and having a heavenly time you are surely one of a kind. Words truly cannot express how much we will miss you, but we gonna take comfort in knowing that your no longer in pain and have reached the ultimate destination of peace and happiness. Your presence will be definitely missed, but your memories and the love you left behind, will forever be engraved in our hearts. Rest in paradise, Aunt Deb, and keep shining your light from above. 😭

Love you forever.....
