“ Donald and I were good friends in high school, having met each other in color guard. He introduced me to great music, great people, and was so warm and friendly, we became fast friends. I will always have the best memories of him and am shocked and deeply saddened by this loss. While we lost touch over the years, I thought of him often whenever I would hear those old songs and thing back to our color guard days. My condolences to his famly, especially his wife and children. May you all have peace and strength at this time.

“ This is devastating. Donald was a great friend in high school, and I was happy to meet up with him again once we'd 'grown up' at a concert in Columbia, MD with his daughter. What a wonderful friendly guy, I am sorry our time with him is over. A man like this will be missed by many, and never forgotten.
