“ Though I have not seen Donna much through our adult lives, I fondly remember her as a bubbly, fun cousin, who loved to show me around the city block, help me swim at Maple Grove, or learn new tricks, like how to negotiate walking on stilts on the city sidewalk. I am sorry she had to leave her family so soon, but I am glad she is no longer suffering. I am sure she will be very missed. ❤️ Blessings to her family & friends,
