

Doris V. Broome

May 6, 2025

Doris V. Broome, 29 and holding for 62 years, of Narvon, went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, May 6, 2025. Born in New London, CT, she was the daughter of the late Ralph I. and Muriel (Packum) Carr. She was the wife of Walter E. Broome, who died in 1996.

Doris was a graduate of J.P. McCaskey, class of 1952. She would receive her Nursing degree from Willow Street Vo Tech in becoming an LPN for 40 years culminating at Homestead Village. After retiring she enjoyed working at BCS Appliance in Elizabethtown.

She was active in her community, including being a Girl Scout leader and Den Mother. She was a Lutheran all her life, serving in the Church Auxiliary and Choir and visiting homebound parishioners; she was a member of Reformation Lutheran Church in her later years. She loved painting, gardening, needlework, reading, thrift shopping, crossword puzzles, and assorted arts and crafts. Her dog Ayla had a special place in her heart.

Doris is survived by her children: James F. Wetzler (Gail) of Fairview, MT, Kristin A. Brill (John) of Narvon, JoAnna M. Mays (Troy) of Lititz and Bryon C. Wetzler (Cheryl) of Bainbridge. She was beloved by her 8 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren and her sister Shirley Tuzi of Vero Beach, FL. Doris was preceded in death by her great grandchild Sophie and her sisters Elaine Dussinger and Muriel Trostle.

Family and friends are invited to Doris's Funeral Service on Thursday, May 15, 2025, at the Groff Family Funeral Home, 528 West Orange St, Lancaster, at 11:00 a.m. with Pastor Mark Chavez officiating. The family will hold a Viewing from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service. The interment will be held at Greenwood Cemetery, Lancaster.

Please omit flowers and consider a memorial contribution in Doris's name to the Reformation Lutheran Church, 2100 Manor Ridge Dr., Lancaster, PA 17603.
