“ I am sorry I cannot attend Doris funeral but want to give my condolences to her family. I worked with doris for about 20 or more years we had so much fun over the years she invited me to almost every house she lived in for delicious meals n my favorite house was one with swimming pool. She left me swim whenever I wanted to she showed me how to work the filter. At worked she taught me how to play a solo solitaire card game when the boss wasn't there we took long breaks also n she would tell the boss when she thought I needed a raise she was the most wonderful lady .I didn't get to see her much in these later years but did get to talk to her on phone couple of time to talk about old times

“ It's been over twenty years since we first met and very interesting time to say the least. You've been a Mother, Mother-in-Law, Grandma, Friend, Advisor, and much more to many. I believe you're the best friend my wife (your daughter) ever had too. As you aged you showed us a very dear side of you but, yet still remained a strong intelligent woman as well. I will not say good bye because I usually don't but, rather "see you later" dear sweet soul! Please give my love to my Brother Andy and everyone till we meet again someday.
