“ During my 34 years with RCA many wonderful things happened. The very best was the day Doris Knotwell came into our department. Her work ethic and friendly disposition made her a total joy as a co-worker. She was the best. R-I-P pretty lady.

“ Nana was a kind and generous woman with a great sense of humor and laugh. I will always have my childhood memories of family holiday meals. She was genuine, independent and free spirited. I'm thankful for our times together and the positive impact she had on our family. You will be missed. Love you, Nana.

“ My great nana was my first best friend. She was a force to be reckoned with and the most beautiful soul I could have ever met. We would have sleepovers and stay up all night talking about everything and nothing all at once. I am so grateful to have gotten to love and be loved by her.
