“ Some of my fondest memories are as a teenager and young adult visiting with Linda and her parents in their Walnut Street home in Lancaster. Dorothy and Herb were the "cool" parents and always made us feel welcome in their home. My particularly favorite visits, were after the fireworks at McCaskey, (1970's), and spending hours in their home, playing pool or out back playing yard games, till the traffic died down. Thank you, Dorothy (and Herb) for your kindness, warmth and wonderful sense of humor. Thank you both for the kind soul you nurtured in my dear friend, Linda. God Speed, Dorothy! All our sympathy to the entire Doerr family. Millie & Bob Shenton
