She would tell you the world is a better place with feline friends, her favorite meal – breakfast, and butterflies. From her father, she learned to follow football and baseball teams and keep scores. She liked to walk for exercise and play miniature golf. Her favorite vacation spot was Sandy Cove. She enjoyed keeping a candy dish filled with chocolates in her room for staff and visitors.

Dottie was predeceased by her parents, her husband, Earl Smuck, Jr. (1994), and her husband, Marvin M. Meyers (2018). She is survived by two stepdaughters, Ruth Ann Kulp (Ken) and Cheryl Whitermore.
