“ Dory and I had a very nice visit when I was down to Lancaster, staying with her neighbor, Mary, a few months ago. If I couldn't stop by at times, a simple phone call made her day. We always referred to each other as our "coal region friend". I am so sorry for your loss. She will truly be missed.

I worked with Dori at Casual Corner during the late 60's. She was a sweet and caring person. We had alot of laughs together. And she never stopped bragging about her two wonderful boys. My condolences to Eddie, President of our Hempfield '65, and to all who loved her. Judy Stoner Colton
