

Dottie M. Stambaugh

February 8, 2024

Dottie Stambaugh, 93, of Lancaster, formerly of York and East Berlin, PA, died Thursday, February 8, 2024. She was the wife of the late Orin Stambaugh, to whom she had been married for 63 years.

Dottie devoted her life to helping others live a healthy lifestyle. As an educator and certified lifestyle counselor, she taught classes in nutrition, weight management and strength training through Penn State Cooperative Education of York County. Dottie was an elegant lady. She was an avid bridge player, accomplished seamstress, gardener, cook and volunteer for the League of Women's Voters and the Woman's Club of York. To Dottie, there was no place like home. Her joy for entertaining and decorating created a welcoming place for family and friends to gather and celebrate life's special occasions. She was indeed the hostess with the mostess!

Dottie loved her family. She is survived by her daughters: Kim Jureckson and husband Mitchell and Anne Meeder and husband John; sisters, Ruth Minnich and Pat Jacoby. Her grandchildren include Ashley and Ben Meeder, Britta and Max Jureckson, Erica Miller, and great-grandsons, George and Mitchell Miller and William Ruiz Meeder.

A private family service will be held in the Memorial Garden at First Presbyterian Church of Lancaster, where Dottie was a member, at the convenience of the family.

Donations honoring Dottie's life can be sent to Hospice & Community Care
P.O. Box 4125, Lancaster, PA 17604-4125.

Dottie was my strength training teacher for many years. I always enjoyed her. She was always willing to share her knowledge about food and health-related issues. My deepest sympathy to her family. She often spoke of her family.
